

If any person directly gives to a voter in any election any money, goods, or chattels, or pay his capitation tax, under an agreement, expressed or implied, that such voter shall give his vote for a particular candidate, such person shall be punished by fine not less than $20 nor more than $100. And the voter receiving such money, goods or chattels, or having his capitation tax paid in pursuance of such agreement, shall be punished in like manner with the person giving the same.

In all cases of conviction for misdemeanor, the court of justice trying the case shall ascertain the punishment, where the same is not fixed by law: Provided, that not more than thirty-nine stripes shall be inflicted in one day nor more than seventy-eight for one offence, and that no fine shall be assessed by a court at less than $5, or by a justice of the peace at less than $2.50, unless otherwise provided by law. Where a person is convicted of petit larceny, and is adjudged in the indictment on which he is convicted and admitted, or by the jury of justice of the peace before whom he is tried, that he has been before sentenced in the United States for like offense, he shall be punished with stripes; and, in the discretion of the court or justice, may be sentenced to work in the chain gang, if there be one established in the county or corporation in which he was tried, not exceeding twelve months.

In any case where a female is convicted of an offense punishable by stripes, she may, in the discretion of the court, be punished by confinement in jail, not exceeding twelve months instead of by stripes.

Counties or cities using prisoners in chain gangs "shall provide for the payment of the expenses of said chain gangs and shall furnish the clothing necessary for such persons, to be paid out of their city, town and county treasuries."

Prisoners may be allowed to work out fine at a cost of 25 cents per day.

The county court, except where otherwise provided, shall have exclusive, original jurisdiction for the trial of all presentments, indictments, and informations for offenses committed within their respective counties, and also of all presentments, indictments, and informations now pending in said courts, except that a person may be tried for any felony for which he may be punished with death, may, upon his arraignment in the county court, demand to be tried in the circuit court having jurisdiction over the county for which said county court is held. But no such demand shall be allowed in a corporation court in which capital felonies may now be tried.

A court may appoint a physician to attend prisoners in its jail and make him a reasonable allowance, not exceeding seventy-five cents per day for each day he attends a patient. When he attends more than one patient a day there may be allowed fifty cents per day for each additional patient. A court may make an allowance not to exceed the sum of $25 as compensation to any physician or analytical chemist for making an analysis to discover poison in any criminal case.

Serjeants are required to buy clothing for prisoners from the General Agent of the penitentiary. They are to make oath that the price charged is not in excess of the amount actually paid, and if not obtained from the penitentiary why so.

When in a criminal case the jury are kept together beyond the day on which they are empaneled, the court shall direct its officer to furnish them with suitable board and lodging while so confined. The expenses therefor not exceeding the rate of one dollar per entire day for such jurors, shall be paid out of the treasury when allowed by the court; but where the punishment cannot be death or confinement to the penitentiary for more than one year, the jury shall not be kept together, but shall be treated as jurors in civil cases, unless the court direct otherwise.

If any person is confined in jail under the preceding section (in default of payment of fine) or under a capias pro fine, it shall be lawful for the sheriff of the county or sergeant of the corporation, with the assent in writing of the prisoner, to hire such prisoner for such length of time, not exceeding six months, as may be agreed on, to any person who will agree to pay the whole fine and costs for six months' service; with the assent of the county judge the hireling may be for a less sum. The contract shall be returned to the clerk of the county court, and if the prisoner refuses to comply with the contract on affidavit of the hirer a capias pro fine may issue and the prisoner be remanded to jail.

To a jailer, in case of the Commonwealth, for receiving a person in jail first committed twenty-five cents; for keeping and supporting him therein, for each day, forty cents; but when there are as many as three and less than ten prisoners in jail, thirty cents for each; when there are ten or more, twenty-five cents for each prisoner in jail. Provided, however, that in the cities of Portsmouth, Norfolk and Petersburg the judge of the Corporation or Hustings Court may make an allowance to pay the necessary and proper salaries of such number of deputy sergeants as said judge shall consider needful, and such allowance shall be paid out of the treasury of such city; Provided further, that in the cities of Richmond and Alexandria the judge of the Hustings or Corporation Court shall, with the consent of the City Council, make an allowance to pay the necessary and proper salaries of such number of deputy sergeants as said judge shall consider needful, and such allowance shall be paid out of the treasury of such city.

The fee of a justice of the peace shall be issuing a warrant of arrest fifty cents; for trying a case of misdemeanor and an examination on charges of felony rendered in each case by a justice. Constable's fees are reduced. No justice, constable, sergeant, captain, or sergeant of police, who receives a salary or allowance for general services out of the treasury of his county, city, or corporation, shall receive any fees for services in a criminal case from the State, city, or county, but all fees to such officer shall be paid by the party against whom judgment is rendered. Provided, however, that the judge of any city or corporation court may make an allowance not exceeding $200 a year to each of two constables or sergeants of police of such city or corporation, to be paid to them in lieu of all fees for serving criminal process of any kind, which allowance shall be paid out of the treasury.

Any officer who inflicts stripes under a judgment of a justice or court shall receive fifty cents therefor out of the State Treasury.

VEGETINE

FOR DROPSY.
I NEVER SHALL FORGET THE FIRST DOSE.
Providence.

Mr. H. R. Stevens.
Dear Sir—I have been a great sufferer from dropsy. I was confined to my house more than a year. Six months of the time I was entirely helpless. I was obliged to have two men help me in an out of bed. I was swollen 19 inches larger than my natural size around my waist. I suffered all in vain could and live. I tried all remedies for Dr. J. I had three different doctors. My friends expected I would die; many nights I was expected to die before morning. At last Vegetine was sent me by a friend. I never shall forget the first dose. I could realize its good effects from day to day; I was getting better. After I had taken some 6 or 6 bottles I could sleep quite well at night. I began to gain now quite fast. After taking some 10 bottles, I could walk from one part of my room to the other. My appetite was good; the dropsy had at this time disappeared. I kept taking the Vegetine until regained my usual health. I heard of a great many cures by using Vegetine after I got out and was able to attend to my work. I am a carpenter and builder. I will also say it has cured a son of my wife's of Neuritis, who had suffered for more than 20 years. She says she has not had any neuralgia for eight months. I have given it to one of my children for Canker Humor. I have no doubt in my mind it will cure any humor; it is a great cleanser of the blood; it is safe to give a child. I will recommend it to the world. My father is 80 years old, and he says there is nothing like it to give strength and life to an aged person. I cannot be too thankful for the use of it. I am.
Very gratefully yours,
JOHN S. NOTTAGE.

ALL DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.—If Vegetine will relieve pain; cleanse, purify, and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies and suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof if you are a sufferer you will be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

VEGETINE

I OWE MY HEALTH TO YOUR VALUABLE VEGETINE.
Newport, Ky., April 29, 1877.

H. R. Stevens, Esq.
Dear Sir—Having suffered from a breaking out of Cankerous Sores for more than five years, caused by an accident of a fractured bone, which fracture ran into a running sore, and having used everything I could think of and nothing helped me until I had taken six bottles of your valuable medicine, which Mr. Miller, the apothecary, recommended very highly. The sixth bottle cured me, and I feel that I owe my health to your valuable Vegetine.
Yours most obedient servant,
ALBERT VON ROEDER.

"It is unnecessary for me to enumerate the diseases for which the Vegetine should be used, as I know of no disease with which it will not admit of good results. Almost innumerable complaints are caused by poisonous secretions in the blood, which can be entirely expelled from the system by the use of the Vegetine. When the blood is perfectly cleansed the disease rapidly yields; all pains cease; the patient is promptly restored, and the patient is cured."

Dr. H. R. Stevens.
Dear Sir—I was seriously troubled with Kidney Complaint for a long time. I have consulted the best doctors in this city. I have used your Vegetine for this disease, and it has cured me when the doctors failed to do so.
Yours truly,
ERNEST DURIGAN,
Residence, 621 Race st. Place of business, 673 Central avenue.

LEGAL NOTICES.

VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 31 day of July, 1878.

M. Skidmore, plaintiff, vs. Lewis Skidmore, Emily C. Skidmore, Mary D. Allen and Mary D. A. Skidmore, defendants. In chancery. Memo. The object of this suit is to divide the estate of Andrew F. Skidmore amongst his heirs at law.

The defendant, Mary D. A. Skidmore, not having entered her appearance and given security according to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by affidavit that she is not a resident of this State, it is ordered that the said defendant, in default of her appearance, be and she is, in this Court, do and do what is necessary to protect her interest in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city. VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 18th day of June, 1878.

The Washington City Savings Bank, use of William E. Mattingly, George Thompson, Walker Lewis, David Joseph Thornton, and John W. Magill, trading as bankers under the name and style of Lewis Johnson & Co.; James C. Hall and Otis Bigelow, for themselves and others, holders of notes secured by deed of trust made by William H. Davis, who may choose to come in as plaintiffs herein, plaintiffs, against William H. Davis, Lucetta J. Davis, his wife, John C. Weems, administrator with the will annexed of the estate of Joseph Dickinson Thorpe, Joseph Thornton and Ann J. Thornton, his wife, Charles E. Rittenhouse and Rittenhouse, his wife, William H. Marbury and M. Dulany Ball, trustees, S. Ferguson Beach, Francis L. Smith, Jr., and W. Arthur Taylor, defendants. In chancery.

Memo. The object of the above suit is to establish certain facts of trust made by defendant William H. Davis and wife to William H. Dulany, trustee, upon a certain tract of land in Fairfax county, Virginia, consisting of about 7500 acres, known as the Thornton tract, fully described in said deed of trust, which was executed about August 17, 1869, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the county of Fairfax, about Sept. 14, 1869, and made to secure the payment of certain notes described in said deed of trust, amounting to $150,000, made by said Davis to the order of said Rittenhouse, and endorsed by him and Joseph Thornton, and a portion of which are owned by the plaintiffs, as the first lien upon said tract of land to procure the said property to be sold for the purpose of enforcing payment of the said notes held by the plaintiff, to have adjudged and decreed certain alleged assignments of lines by Joseph Thornton to Joseph Dickinson Thorpe, and claimed by said administrator of his estate to be the first lien upon said property to be judicially sold and the proceeds thereof to be applied to the payment of the said notes and endorser of said notes for the amount thereof, with interest, and for the relief prayed for in the bill filed.

The defendants, Charles E. Rittenhouse and Lucetta J. Davis, his wife, and Joseph Thornton, not having entered their appearance and given security according to the act of Assembly and the rules of this Court, and it appearing by affidavit that they are not residents of this State, it is ordered that the said defendants appear here within one month after due publication of this order, and do what is necessary to protect their interests in this suit; and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city. ICE CREAM, SODA WATER, &c. ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR ICE CREAM that has made a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENGLE'S ICE CREAM. I can easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but I do not. I sell good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, that cannot be furnished at a less price than I sell it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering "Brenge's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream
